WIN A XMAS HAMPER

Daltons Supermarkets and "Photo News" offer you the chance to win all the goodies pictured below. These consist of a large Tip Top Roasting Fowl, a 2 litre can of Tip Top Ice Cream, a large packet of Bluebird Potato Chips, a 4lb tin of Griffins Biscuits, 2lbs of Cadbury Chocolates, a 7lb tin of Watties Fruit Salad, a 7lb tin of Watties Peach Slices, and 6 large bottles of Western Lemonade. The grand Christmas Hamper totals over $15 in value and has been donated by Daltons.

In addition, every entrant receives a packet of Moon Mix Cordial. All you have to do to enter is clip the coupon on the opposite page, and hand it to the check-out girl at any of the Daltons Supermarkets. You must have your coupon in by December 21st, before 5 p.m. All coupons will then be put in a hat and some lucky person will win this fabulous Christmas Hamper. The winner will be notified by telegram.

CHILD STUDY OF THE MONTH

ASK "PHOTO NEWS" TO YOUR NEXT CABARET, SOCIAL OR PARTY.

IN ADDITION TO TAKING PHOTOS FOR THIS MAGAZINE, WE WILL OFFER YOU A FULL CANDID COVERAGE OF THE EVENT, WITH PRINTS AVAILABLE AT REASONABLE PRICES.

THERE'S NO ATTENDANCE FEE EITHER. JUST PHONE 80-101.

Glenn Collins (8 months) obviously enjoys his ice creams. Glenn is from New Plymouth and this photo of him was taken by Mrs Cuthbertson, winning the album "Golden Hour Sounds of Christmas." The album to be won for the next "Child Study of the Month" is "David's Album," by Joan Baez, her latest release.

FILL IN THIS COUPON TO ENTER THE DALTONS-PHOTO NEWS XMAS HAMPER CONTEST.

Please place my entry in the DALTONS-PHOTO NEWS Christmas Hamper Contest. I am not employed by Daltons Supermarkets or Photo News, nor am I an immediate relative of any either company's employees.

SEEKERS' WINNER

Doggonne my soul, how I love the New Seekers. They are as their LP title suggests, beautiful people! They sound happy and full of fun and as I listen I can feel that happiness their music projects.

Their music has a certain personality — a bouncing "it's great to be alive" kind of personality. I love their style, I love their bouncing melodies, but most of all I'd love to see them.

On this page we feature pix from the New Seekers' concert. In the afternoon they rehearsed (ABOVE), watched closely by this little boy. Lindsay Marks and Brent Parlane (ABOVE LEFT) were the supporting acts, and then the New Seekers stormed the stage. General opinion afterwards was that this group is better than the original Seekers.

MINI CIRCUS

The Radio Hauraki Mini Circus has been touring the country, playing at schools, for quite some time now. Over the past few weeks, the circus has been in Taranaki, so here's a series of pix showing some of the acts. The clowns were, of course, the biggest attraction for the children, though the animal acts were very appealing. The 13-year-old trapeze artist (ABOVE) shows quite a remarkable talent for her age. The whole story of the circus is best told by the expressions of the audience (RIGHT).

Toastmasters' Dinner

INSTANT PHOTOS

Now VOÛGE STUDIOS can offer you an Instant Photo Service.

Colour prints, nearly postcard size, are available 60 seconds after exposure. Our Polaroid operator is regularly calling at the Royal Hotel, the Bali Restaurant and the Ngamotu Tavern. Just ask next time you see him. If you prefer, we can arrange for our Polaroid man to cover your social, party or cabaret — PHONE US ON 80-101.

WEIGHT – WATCHERS' CABARET

FIRE DAY

New Plymouth firemen showed the public what they are capable of and how well they are trained to act in any given emergency situation, one recent Saturday morning. Our pix show the fire boys in action in various phases of their work and, RIGHT, the children's pet and hero, or as one youngster said, "my favourite dog," the firemen's mascot 'Sparky.'

PRObe

WITH BRYCE McPHERSON.

The New Seekers made an impact at the Bowl of Brooklands, on November 11. The attendance was around 12,500 – not too many fewer than the record crowd that packed the Bowl for the concert by the original Seekers, a few years ago.

The Festival of the Pines kicks off on December 28, with English tenor David Whitfield and the finalists in television's "New Faces" contest.

A highlight of the two-month Festival will be the programme by the polished Te Kowhai Polynesian Group, from Rotorua. I have seen this party on stage and they are really something.

On the weekend of November 11 and 12, the Taranaki Promotion Association hosted 22 travel and tour representatives from Christchurch, Wellington, Hawke's Bay, Palmerston North and Auckland, and one from Melbourne, Australia.

My summary of the weekend: Two years' work in two days.

The promotion proved even more successful than might reasonably have been expected and a number of complimentary letters have been received from our visitors. The complimentary factor relates in particular to the potential of Taranaki as a tourist centre in its own right.

We set out to sell our special attractions, with an emphasis on horticulture and agriculture. Though this was the theme, comments made by Mr D. R. Morgan (Pan Am) gave us considerable food for thought.

Speaking on behalf of the party, he said Taranaki should not undersell itself. We have undoubted specialist interests, but have more to offer than that: "You are a tourist area in your own right; largely untapped, but comparable, in conjunction with your specialist attractions, with the more recognised tourist centres," he said.

Mr Morgan stressed that we must get out and sell ourselves and our attractions. Gains would not be immediate, but as Taranaki became better known – and used – as a tourist area, the gains would emerge in greater content.

His words – and those used are only a few of them – mean that, to progress, we must have a close look at ourselves, our province, and what we have been, and now must do, to claim a greater share of the visitor market.

But I am convinced that the ultimate gains from the promotion will be considerable. However, we must now take stock of the direction and standard of our efforts. We cannot afford to sit back and let the promotion take its course. We have got to formulate a policy, designed to consolidate, and even improve, the gains made during the weekend promotion.

During the promotion we barely scratched the surface of what we have to offer tourists, holidaymakers or visitors in general; but the highlights were shown and, judging by both verbal and written remarks, the majority of the visitors were impressed.

Gane's Gardens, Pukeiti and the Bowl of Brooklands were the most discussed aspects; and Pukekura Park and the green farmlands received their share of commendation. However, there is a need to exploit the more unique features, such as historical sites, and places like the tannery at Stratford, and the Ngaere Gardens.

The mountain, too, needs to be pushed. Mr Morgan placed great emphasis on the commercial aspect. "Commercialism is not a dirty word, it is an essential part of progress. And progress includes tourism. You have got to sell your area, and something to those people you attract to your area."

There is a need for souvenir outlets – the Stratford tannery is one that was mentioned as having wide potential.

We were quoted as being a destination, rather than stop-over, province. The basis of that summary rests on the variety of attractions we have to offer. "Get the people here and then show them what you have," was the message I heard throughout the promotional weekend.

It is pertinent to say that we must take a renewed look at our aims and objects, for we are more than a special interests area – we are a tourist centre in our own right.

The gauntlet has been thrown down. Do we accept the challenge? If so, we must revamp our ideas, upgrade and expand our publicity material, direct it to the right sources and areas, and work towards the extension of available resources to cater for tourists, visitors and holidaymakers.

This will require wide support and considerable finance. The promotion was a huge success but we must consolidate on the advances made in just two short days.

BE OUR GUEST AT THE BOWL, ON JAN. 13

THE RUMOUR

On Saturday night, January 13, one of the brightest holiday shows will play the Bowl of Brooklands. The show headlines Suzanne and the Rumour and, in addition, features Rob Guest (straight from a very successful season in Auckland, starring in the rock opera "Man of Sorrows"), Lew Pryme (who also starred in "Man of Sorrows"), a bright new boy-girl duo, "The Third Affair," and rock group "The Face."

Suzanne and the Rumour need no introduction. They are both firmly established as top drawcards in New Zealand. Lew Pryme is, of course, a trouper from many years back and is still in demand at clubs and hotels, while Rob Guest has rocketed to fame in the past year, to become just about the biggest discovery of 1972. The show will be a first rate evening's entertainment, of that we can be sure.

"Photo News" has 10 double passes to this show, especially for our readers. Yes, a total of 20 people will see this show as guests of "Taranaki Photo News" and Fullers Entertainment Agency, who, of course, are running the show.

Fill in the coupon below and post to "Fullers Show Competition, C/- Photo News, P.O. Box 427, New Plymouth," telling us how many grooves there are on a 45 R.P.M. single that plays for 2 minutes 35 seconds.

The first ten correct entries received will win double passes. The Competition closes on January 4.

HAWERA SHOW

HAVE A GOOD HOLIDAY, BUT...

We at "Photo News" want you to enjoy your holiday, but we want you to come home again alive and without injury to you or your family. In the interests of holiday safety, we run these few pictures. We all know the end result of careless driving, of speed (ABOVE), going through STOP signs (BELOW), and failing to keep to your own side of the road (TOP, Facing Page). We ask you to please be careful. Careful when driving, and careful, also, of empty bottles. The little girl at LEFT could well be maimed for life, had she trodden on this discarded bottle at the beach. Please take empty glassware with you, or deposit it in rubbish tins.

Speed, and failing to keep left, are the two main causes of road accidents.

ABOVE—We can see two bad examples of leaving your own side of the road.

Kids, you too can be a danger. If you're on your bike, keep close to the edge of the road; don't wobble across the road.

Drivers, don't forget to BELT UP!

COURTESY COUNTS BUT CARELESSNESS KILLS!

"PHOTO NEWS" WISHES TO THANK THE MINISTRY OF TRANSPORT FOR ITS HELP IN MAKING THE PHOTOGRAPHS ON THESE TWO PAGES.

Jaycee Shipwreck Cabaret

It may have been a Shipwreck cabaret, but nobody had their spirits dampened when the Inglewood Jaycees decided to let their hair down.

GUIDES AWARD

PRIZEGIVING

The Junior section of the C.W.I. held a prizegiving ceremony at the Frankleigh Hall. There were two awards, for the "Best Boy" and "Best Girl." Mrs E. Wheels made the presentations and Janice Alson won the girl's award (BELOW RIGHT). As there were no boys in the Junior section, the boy's award went to Karen Harvey (BELOW CENTRE).

Wedding Bells

Left: DOODY—PEPPERELL. At St Philomena's, Brooklands, Pamela, daughter of Mr and Mrs R. J. Pepperell, of New Plymouth, to Kevin, son of Mr and Mrs J. Doody, also of New Plymouth. The attendants were Robyn Pepperell, Cheryl Watts, Joy Ayton, Neil McNeill, Gary Bishell, Peter Doody and Leanne Davis.

COUNTRY BAR-B-Q

The North Taranaki Country and Western Club held a weekend barbeque on a farm at Tikorangi. Many members brought caravans, or tents, and stayed all weekend. The highlight of the event was the Saturday evening, when the club's band played, and dancing was 'hoe-down' style, in the open air.

Left: ATKINS—HENDERSON. At St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, New Plymouth, Pamela Anne, daughter of Mr and Mrs P. A. Henderson, of New Plymouth, to Wayne Christopher, son of Mr and Mrs P. R. Atkins, of Whakatane. The attendants were Sue Ingram and Helen Ingram, both of Auckland, Lee McLellan, of New Plymouth, Trevor Henderson, of Wellington, Athol Henderson, of New Plymouth, and Les Cairns, of Whakatane. The couple is to make their home in Whakatane. (Charters and Guthrie).

AERO CLUB RALLY AT HAWERA

Hawera was the scene of this year's Central Districts Aero Club rally. The event was a big attraction in South Taranaki and the host club ran joy rides in their Piper Cherokee (Opposite Page, FAR RIGHT). Visitors from Wellington, Derek and Gail Souter (RIGHT), showed great interest in the planes on display, and Steven McCann and Anthony Johnson, of Hawera's No.47 A.T.C. Squadron (BELOW), helped in the organisation, on the day. One of the most interesting planes was a home made "Taylor" mono, fitted with a 1600cc Volkswagen motor (ABOVE). TOP—Bob Gunn, from Hawke's Bay, flew over for the event in his own Cessna 172 and, ABOVE RIGHT, the mobile control van, from Ohakea, came to help with radio control operations. Opposite Page, TOP—One of the competitions was in 'forced landing.' Planes had to touch their wheels on the canvas matt at the bottom of the picture.

McKECHNIE'S DARTS CABARET

TOP LEFT—Jim Stubbing, Alma Stubbing and Dorris Gower. TOP RIGHT—Bruce and Alice Moffett. ABOVE LEFT—Bev Gooch, Jenny Watson and Peter Watson. ABOVE RIGHT—Des and Olga Attrill. LEFT—Dancing are Don Le Jeune and Florine Pare and, at the bar, are Brenda Davies and Judy Vevers. RIGHT—Guest vocalist Gail Watson. BOTTOM LEFT—Benny and Coral Scott and, BELOW, Mr and Mrs M. Rodger, Peter and Mrs Doorbar, and Mr and Mrs A. M. Williams.

EXCITING CRICKET

BIRTHDAYS

URENUI SONGSTERS

One of the most delightful shows we have seen recently, was the one staged by the Urenui Country Songsters.

APOLOGY. In the last issue of "Photo News," Cupid attacked our typist, with the result that our type came out all wrong. We had Carol King (page 17) engaged to Tony Martin, whereas she was in fact celebrating her birthday. Sorry, Carol and Tony.

SANTA PARADE

Below left: RAE—REID. Jan, daughter of Mr and Mrs Bill Reid, of New Plymouth, to Robert, son of Mr and Mrs N. Rae, also of New Plymouth. (Vogue Studios).

Below: HASKELL—TURNER. Lee Christine, daughter of Mr and Mrs W. J. Turner, of New Plymouth, to Warren Frank, son of Mr and Mrs F. E. Haskell, of Waitara.

AROUND TOWN

Solomon King Show

Alpine Club Cabaret
