Regatta

Race over, and this competitor catches his breath

A Rowing Regatta was held on the Waitara River in December. The Clifton Rowing Club was host to teams from three Wanganui clubs and this competition was no doubt very valuable to members of the local club.

This guy was really breathless as the race finished.

PANTO.

You have all heard of Cinderella and no doubt know the story off by heart.

Well, Inglewood Dramatic Society's production of 'The Other Cinderella' was a long cry from that little tale. This Cinderella was the type of girl you could quite comfortably put over your knee and dish out a little corporal punishment.

We attended the show on opening night, and apart from a few early cases of opening night jitters, the show was well presented and went off very well.

Even the Good Fairy had her problems. She had a thing about, or should we say with, The Demon.

With a beautiful gown she was transformed and for a time we thought she was going to win herself a "Rarming Chince", sorry, Charming Prince.

This Cinderella was a nasty piece of equipment.

She threw tantrum after tantrum.

But in the end she reverted to her true nasty form

Hospital party

A Christmas Party was organised at Barret Street Hospital early in December.

The event went off with bang—from a Christmas cracker—and all there seemed to be in high spirits. Volunteer helpers, staff and patients alike voted the party a big success.

There was even a band there to keep everyone in happy mood.

Miss Pepe and Mrs Walker

Mrs Ferry and Mr Wallis.

Mr Tunbridge and Mrs Harrison

Fay Brown and Mrs Falk

Mesdames Butterini and Hughes

And all the kids rushed Santa when he arrived. The bearded one had a kindly word for each of them.

XMAS PARTY

Residents of the Waitui area organised their own Christmas Party early in December, complete with a Santa, for all the kids in the district.

The part took place on the first Saturday night of December at the Waitui Hall and a fairly large crowd was noted. Apart from Santa and his giving of presents to the kids, films were also shown.

Linda Hayburn just wasn't at all sure.

He took the shield but looked pretty glum about it.

Congratulations for a good season.
