

TARANAKI
PHOTO
NEWS

30c
No. 193. 5 MAY 1972.

MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Animals and children — the best subject for any shutterbug. We just couldn't resist this picture, at the Inglewood G.S.O.E., of a very young man just watching proceedings, and his best friend staying pretty close by.

ENGAGED

Above: HONORE-CLAPPERTON. Pauline, daughter of Mr and Mrs R. A. Clapperton, Hawera, to Graeme, son of Mr and Mrs D. J. Honore, Levin. (David Paul Studios).

MARRIED

Below: SKELLERN-DRABBLE. At the All Saints' Church, Eltham, Yvonne, only daughter of Mr and Mrs D. A. Drabble, Eltham, to Rob, eldest son of Mr and Mrs G. E. Skellern, New Plymouth. The bridesmaids were Sharon Phelan, Auckland, and Vivienne Sundgren, Waitara. The best man was Rob Rucker, New Plymouth, and the groomsman was Graham Skellern, brother of the groom, New Plymouth. Future home, New Plymouth.

Taranaki Photo News

PUBLISHED EVERY FOURTH SATURDAY
PRINTED BY LOGAN PUBLISHING CO. LTD

Editor: REG EVES

Buyrite Supermarket Building, corner Devon and Morley Streets, New Plymouth. Telephones: 80-101 and 88-843. P.O. Box 427. (After hours telephone 88-712).

Registered as a newspaper at the G.P.O., Wellington.
PREPAID SUBSCRIPTION BY POST: $3.80 PER ANNUM.

OUR COVER

ISSUE NO. 193. 5 MAY 1972.
NEXT ISSUE 2 JUNE.

How's this for a reminder of the balmy days of summer. Gracing our cover this month is Annette Coxhead, Waitara. Annette was a bit shy about being photographed, but we feel sure she has made a good job as a model.

BACK COVER. Work is proceeding fast on the new bridge at Waitara. Piles have been sunk and the trusses are being placed. Good thing, when it's finished, for it will eliminate a bottleneck.

SPOTSWOOD KINDERGARTEN FASHION PARADE

BELOW, FROM LEFT—
Suzanne; Irene Barr; Gay;
and Irene. RIGHT—Joan Mulliner, compere and model.

ALF WALKER: Carver Extraordinaire

Alf Walker, Skinner Street, New Plymouth, came out from England in 1963 and has been carving since 1964. He carves as a hobby only, but it is as good as we've seen anywhere.

ABOVE LEFT—This guy greets the visitor at the doorstep. ABOVE CENTRE—Somebody got a fright. ABOVE RIGHT—Alf, holding one of his intricately carved spears. BELOW—That's only one of the walls. The whole house is decorated with carvings.

WE FOUND THEM HARD TO PICK!

We went to the New Plymouth Trots, as did thousands of other hopefuls. Up to the fourth race, we were in credit, then something went wrong with our system. We had that many tips passed on to us, that we were confused, and consequently did our dough. It was nevertheless a great day's racing with good fields and good racing that kept one on one's toes. Altogether a well organised meeting, and given the fine weather it had, a completely successful day from the Trotting Club's point of view.

ABOVE—General view of the stands and the crowd that attended. LEFT—Grace Riley and friend study their books. Hope they did better than we did! BELOW—Lord Nugent wins the first leg of the TAB double in a canter.

TOP LEFT—The wife of president Alec Guy presented the Taranaki Trotting cup to the owner of 'Lord Nugent,' B. J. Prince. TOP RIGHT—R. S. Fletcher, owner of 'Single Hal,' receives the trophy for the Cardigan Bay Handicap, from Mrs Dean. ABOVE—Mrs J. J. Barry presented the trophy for the winner of the Patron's Handicap. LEFT—After a race won by 'Fire Call,' the local Fire Brigade arrived. Strange wasn't it. Reckon Less Houston was on that one! BELOW—Now just look at that dust as the field in the second leg goes into its second lap of the track.

MARRIED

Left: DONNELLY—CLARK. At a private ceremony at Waitara, Audrey Gladys, eldest daughter of Mrs D. M. Clark, Waitara, and the late Mr B. I. Clarke, to Keith Sedden, only son of Mr and Mrs K. H. Donnelly, Waitara. Future home, Waitara. (Vogue Studios).

Above: CATTLEY—SHEPHEARD. At St Joseph's Catholic Church, Waitara, Glenis Mary, second daughter of Mr and Mrs A. W. Shepheard, Waitara, to Michael John, youngest son of Mr and Mrs R. F. Cattley, New Plymouth. The matrons of honour were Raewynn Gibbs, Auckland, and Wendy Froggatt, Bell Block. The best man was Bob Anderson, New Plymouth, and the groomsman was Murray McKay, Wellington. The flower-girl was Sandra Shepheard and the page boy was Dean Shepheard. Future home, New Plymouth.

Below: JOE—TITO. At the Hawera Methodist Church, Yvonne Rana, daughter of the late Mr and Mrs D. Tito, to Peter Kai, son of Mr and Mrs K. Wong Joe, Palmerston North. The bridesmaids were Faye Tito, Raina Nyman, and Gail Wong. The best man was Gerald Joe, and the groomsmen were Dave Purdy and Eddie Gain. The flower-girl was Karen Broughton. Future home, Palmerston North. (David Paul Studios).

Below: RUBY WEDDING. Mr and Mrs Charlie Hodge, Nikorama Road, Motonui, recently celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary. (Vogue Studios).

Right: 21st BIRTHDAY. Christine, third daughter of Mr and Mrs A. Miscall, New Plymouth, celebrated her 21st with a dinner party at the Braemar. She is shown here with her parents. (Vogue Studios).

Below right:
SILVER WEDDING. Mr and Mrs P. Henderson, New Plymouth, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a party in the War Memorial Hall lecture room. Shown here is the Henderson family. From left, Pamela, Dad, Mum, Athol and Trevor. (Vogue Studios).

CELEBRATIONS

THEY LIVE LONG IN TARANAKI

We've seen quite a few really old people celebrating their birthdays recently, in New Plymouth, and it would seem that longevity is one of the qualities of the town and province.

ABOVE—Mrs Cassie Duggan, who celebrated her 97th, looks about as perky as one could look at that age. ABOVE RIGHT—Here's Cassie with four of her children. At back, son Alf and daughter Eileen Butcher, and in front, Harriett Conaglen and Cassie Hammond. BELOW—Mrs Edith Donnelly, of St Aubyn Street, who has passed her 92nd birthday. She still cooks better than most, and paints pictures for a hobby. BELOW RIGHT—Percy Appleby, the baby of the party, is a mere 90, and still enjoys his game of bowls. Percy walks just about everywhere, and is one of the fittest 90-year-olds we've seen.

GREYHOUNDS AT * INGLEWOOD

Greyhound racing is booming throughout New Zealand, and this is no more evident than at the Inglewood track. What they want, of course, is betting facilities on the track, and they are certainly putting a lot of effort into making this plan a reality. And why not? If it's good enough for the jockey clubs, it's good enough for the greyhound racing clubs!

TOP—Two attitudes of the racing dog. ABOVE LEFT—'Hells A Poppin' caught midway over the hurdle. ABOVE RIGHT—'Mr Lincoln and 'Mr Lightening.' BELOW—The start of the limit 290 yards race. BOTTOM—Two of the racers round the bend. BELOW CENTRE—Stipendary steward Ben Bray presents the owner of 'Hi Joan' with a sash for winning the 700 yards open. RIGHT—Lee McGovern, parade steward.

SPEEDBOATS TURN IT ON

Judging from the large audience, it would appear that the speedboat races at Lake Ratapiko were at the beginning of the season, rather than the end. Our cameraman wasn't there for long, but he was lucky enough to capture the most spectacular accident of the day.

TOP—It certainly is a beautiful venue for speedboat racing. ABOVE, LEFT and RIGHT—'Clipper Boy' flips and starts to sink. RIGHT—'Clipper Boy' being towed to shore. BOTTOM RIGHT—A section of the crowd. BELOW—'Near Go' had just that, in most events. BOTTOM LEFT—Wellington's 'Fusspot' raced mostly out of the water!

Topping Off Ceremony At The New T. & G. Building

Representatives of the companies concerned with the erection of this new asset to New Plymouth were present for the topping off ceremony which was carried out by Mr B. B. O'Donnell, the New Zealand manager.

ABOVE, LEFT AND RIGHT—From the top of the building looking south and north. BELOW—Mr O'Donnell makes the finishing touch, watched by his New Plymouth manager, Mr J. E. Mulder, and Mr G. Perry. BELOW LEFT—Looking straight down Liardet Street.

WE STILL REMEMBER THEM

AND WILL GO ON DOING SO, for theirs will not be a sacrifice in vain. As the morning sun shines brightly on the crosses of the field of remembrance, by the Cenotaph, passers-by look and, we feel sure, think of the importance of this display. How can any one condone war, which is so costly.

Above: ROGERS-PETERS. At St John's Presbyterian Church, Hawera, Sonia Marie, daughter of Mr and Mrs F. I. Peters, Hawera, to Alan Claude, son of Mr and Mrs G. E. Rogers, Manai. The chief bridesmaid was Catherine Marsh, Hawera, and the bridesmaids were Carolyn Peters, sister of the bride, Hawera, and Wendy Howell, Hawera. The best man was Cedric Lander, Hawera. Future home, Auckland.
(David Paul Studios).

MARRIED

Right: HAYMAN-HART. At St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, New Plymouth, Raewyn, younger daughter of Mr and Mrs F. S. Hart, New Plymouth, to Colin Bryan, youngest son of Mr and Mrs H. Hayman, New Plymouth. The maid of honour was Marilyn Peters, sister of the bride, New Plymouth, and the junior bridesmaid was Alison Hunter, New Plymouth. The best man was John Peters, New Plymouth. Future home, New Plymouth.

MINI MODELS FOR MINI FASHION PARADE

Why is it that if any district, town or suburb wants to start up a kindergarten, they have to raise the money themselves? In a country where education is supposed to be free, surely our kind, benevolent government should supply the buildings as well as the teachers. But they don't, and consequently we found ourselves at a fashion parade run by the Spotswood Kindergarten Association, to raise funds for a new building. We trust that with your help they will be successful.

Brett Way

Trina Blackmore

Jason Lawrence

Compere and president,
Barbara Booten

Elizabeth Gray

Julie James

ENGAGED

Above left: CLARKE-WATSON. Maree Alice, only daughter of Mr and Mrs A. E. Watson, New Plymouth, to Trevor Stewart, youngest son of Mr and Mrs J. C. Clarke, New Plymouth. (Vogue Studios).

Above: BARKER-HEY. Glenys Anne, daughter of Mrs E. M. Hey, Hawera, to Gerald Vivian, son of Mr and Mrs D. H. Barker, Christchurch.

Left: BISHELL-RITCHIE. Sheryn Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs W. S. Ritchie, Inglewood, to Gary Edward, elder son of Mr and Mrs E. A. Bishell, New Plymouth. (Vogue Studios).

Below left: DEMPSEY-FENTON. Brenda, third daughter of Mr and Mrs R. K. T. Fenton, New Plymouth, to Paul, fourth son of Mrs M. S. Dempsey, Levin, and the late Mr J. Dempsey. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

MARRIED *

Below: COLLIER-GRAY. At Chad's Church, New Plymouth, Isobel Margaret, only daughter of Mr and Mrs R. W. Gray, New Plymouth, to Noel William, second son of Mrs M. R. Collier, Auckland. The bridesmaids were Lynne Kay, New Plymouth, and Lynne Higbie, Inglewood. The best man was Colin Thomson, Auckland, and the groomsman was Graham Collier, brother of the groom, Auckland. Future home, New Plymouth.

RECIPROCAL CONCERT *

Recent visitors to our district, the King Singers from England gave a fine concert for the pupils of the Waitara High School. In their turn they invited their guests out for a taste of Maori singing. It seemed to us that the kids were all out to show the King Singers just how good Maori music is, and how well it is rendered by a group of Maoris. So well did they perform their task, that the leader of the King Singers paid very high praise to the school and pupils who entertained for a short time.

ABOVE—Part of the Maori group at the school, during one of their items. BELOW—The sole audience was the King Singers and their tour organisers. BOTTOM—Happy faces and perfect harmony was the keynote of their performance.

CHANGING FACE OF THE CITY *

*

*

It's amazing, isn't it, how the city changes right before our eyes and we don't even notice it. Then one day we look to where a certain building always was and, hey presto . . . it's gone, somebody pinched it. With the removal of all the old buildings, new ones are going up almost as fast as the old ones come down. The skyline also changes rapidly as most of the new buildings are considerably larger than the ones they replace.

ABOVE—The Westown Hospital is quickly nearing completion. ABOVE RIGHT—Kibby's new metal processing plant, near the centre of town. BELOW—Not far to go with the new Westown Post Office. BELOW RIGHT—The old with the new. The old convent set amid modern structures, is 84 years old and now stands empty and forlorn, until the demolishers arrive.

URENUI COLLIE CLUB JUBILEE

Quite a large gathering of farmers and wives attended the 25th annual trials of the Urenui Collie Club, on the properties of Messrs Lange and Northcott. More than just a trial, this event gives all the local (and not so local) ladies of the land a chance to catch up on the latest in gossip.

ABOVE—Keith Herbert and his dog 'Speed' make a good team. RIGHT—Mr Bill Paton-McDonald, club secretary. FAR RIGHT—Eric Gall and Rex Honeyfield discussing the merits of various dogs. BELOW—'Where's that mutt?' BELOW RIGHT—Veta Hills and Chryss Smith having a break in the sun.

MIGHTY INDOOR BASKETBALL CABARET

The Indoor Basketball Association doesn't do things by half measures, and consequently, when they decided to hold a cabaret, they went right into the whys and wherefores and came up with a winner. To start with, the biggest hall was hired, top caterers, and New Plymouth's best cabaret band, just to show everybody that they were doing things the right way in making this an evening to be remembered. Then all the tickets were prepared and the word went out. Dennis Toon, chief ticket seller, had a gleam in his eye every time somebody walked into the fruit shop, and boy, did he sell a pile of tickets. There was a terrific crowd there and they didn't waste any time partaking of the wine and song. Great stuff!

ABOVE—John Curd and Yvonne Yule. ABOVE CENTRE—Alan Cordin and Rosemary Moss. ABOVE RIGHT: Brian Curd and Jeanine Revell. RIGHT—Eileen Baley and Mark Davey. FAR RIGHT—Sheryl Ellis and Graham Rook. BELOW—Lindsay Richardson and Ellen Wright. BELOW CENTRE—Chris Burn and Angela. BELOW RIGHT—Bernie Stevenson and Wendy White. (Vogue Studios).

* * *

Married

Left: GIBSON-SMALE. At St John's Anglican Church, Waitara, Ann, only daughter of Mr and Mrs H. Smale, Waitara, to Bob Gibson, youngest son of Mrs I. Bilski, Inglewood. The bridesmaids were Sue Copeland, Waitara, and Dianne Gibson, Omata. The best man was Alec Gilmore, Thames. Future home, Inglewood. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

Right:

WHITAKER-SOWRY. At the Knox Presbyterian Church, Fitzroy, Teresa, only daughter of Mr and Mrs J. A. Sowry, New Plymouth, to Christopher Whitaker, only son of Mr and Mrs G. Easte, Tauranga. The maids were Anneka Gesterkamp, New Plymouth, and Anne Hotter, New Plymouth. The best man was Richard Parrish, Taupo, and the groomsman was Robert Farmer, Cambridge. Future home, Cambridge. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

Left: BULLEN-SEARALL. At St Mary's Anglican Church, New Plymouth, Vanessa, daughter of Mr and Mrs H. Searall, New Plymouth, to William, son of Mr and Mrs W. G. Bullen, New Plymouth. The bridesmaids were Jean Jorgensen, New Plymouth, and Diane McDonald, Taihape. The best man was Warren Searall, brother of the bride, New Plymouth, and the groomsman was Mark Matheson, New Plymouth. Future home, New Plymouth. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

INTERNATIONALS PAY A VISIT

A most entertaining Sunday afternoon was spent at the East End skating rink recently, where the public was treated to a fine display of speed, dance, and figure skating, and roller hockey.

ABOVE, FAR LEFT—Meridee Feek, junior club champ. ABOVE, CENTRE and RIGHT—Marie and Bruce Lindsay, New Zealand Senior dance pairs champs. FAR LEFT—Janey Ballerini, 1972 New Zealand freeskating champ. LEFT—Paul Hatcher, primary boys' freeskating champ. BELOW LEFT—Marie Philpott, runner-up Intermediate girls' freeskating, New Zealand champs. BELOW—These two believe in watching in comfort.

Some of New Zealand's top skaters shared the billing with the two Japanese speed skaters. The roller hockey was just something else, and our two New Zealand reps, Brian Eckersly and Darcy Weir, really showed the skill and speed.

ABOVE LEFT—The 3000 metre speed race about to start. ABOVE and FAR LEFT—Brian and Darcy fight it out. LEFT—Brother and sister, Marie and Bruce, show their fine form. BELOW LEFT—Judith and Desmond Delaney, New Zealand runners up in dance skating. BELOW—George Rob (Australia) leads the field in the 3000 metre race.

VERSATILE MANUFACTURING PLANT

Left: FOUR GENERATIONS. At the back, grandmother Ethel Nolan, and, in front, great-grandmother Emily Shaw with the youngest generation member Leah Rangi, while mother Suzanne Rangi is seated on the right.

Above: 101st BIRTHDAY. Mrs Grace Cartwright, seated in front, recently celebrated her 101st birthday, and is shown here with her five children — Harold, Richard, Barbara Belcher, John and Geoffrey Cartwright.

Below: FOUR GENERATIONS. Four generations of the Novak family. At back, grandfather Frank and father John, and, in front, great-grandfather Michael, with baby Ryan. (Vogue Studios).

ABOVE—At a recent mini show for Guides and Brownies, the Huatoki pack won the team prize for most points. They are, from left, at back, Kay and Lyndal Henry, Mrs Dew and Andrea Tomasi. In front, Meryl Henry, Sharon Bird and Raewyn Tomasi.

You've probably passed this place at Tariki a hundred times and wondered what goes on behind the big sign. Sit back and find out. Not only do they make Almond Paste but you can add to the list soft icing, lemon cheese, icing sugar, cube sugar, fish paste and meat paste. Most of their product is sold locally and a proportion is exported.

RIGHT—Mt Egmont makes a nice backdrop to the factory. BELOW, FROM LEFT—Busy making their 250 doz jars of lemon cheese a day are Les Weendon; Beverly Marriner; and Peter Bulger. BOTTOM LEFT—Manager Mr Linnell checks the product. BOTTOM RIGHT—Les, Beverly and Rosemary Laurence at work.

GREAT FUN, THIS SQUARE DANCING

Ever been to a Country and Western function? You must try it, if you are fond of dancing and meeting nice people. We went along to the Taranaki club's function at Hawera recently, and found visitors from as far afield as Christchurch and Wanganui. There were over 150 people who all enjoyed themselves to the full, for this very joyful sort of dancing. The Taranaki club, based in Hawera, boasts over 80 members and they have functions, including a shindig, every so often. It's a great way to spend leisure time in the evenings.

RIGHT and FAR RIGHT—Dresses are not too different, but the dancing has something for everyone. BELOW—Key man of the evening was the caller, Art Shepherd, a visitor from Christchurch. BOTTOM LEFT—Secretary and president of the host club, Mary Hall and Kevin Hunt. CENTRE and BOTTOM RIGHT—These two pictures show the happy faces of the visiting club members from Christchurch.

ABOVE—Members of the Christchurch club demonstrated a few dances for the crowd, and we were intrigued by some of the intricate movements they executed. This square dancing isn't quite as easy as it looks.

RIGHT—Local members and visitors mingled and seemed to thoroughly enjoy the evening's entertainment. BELOW—This sort of dancing is that in which the whole family can participate, as indeed they did. BELOW RIGHT—How's this for a mixed age set? This is one of the things about square dancing, with everybody joining in.

There's a man in New Plymouth who wants to start a Country and Western club in New Plymouth, and he asked us to pass the word, so anybody interested can get in touch with Les Pelham by phoning 34075, New Plymouth.

BASKETBALL SEASON GETS UNDER WAY

Alistair Jordan, thwarted in a goal attempt

Merv Jamieson, Ross Scouller and Alistair Jordan dispute possession

Alistair going in for a shot

Ross Graeme and Merv see Dennis beat them to it

Murray Belcher

Women's basketball is getting increasingly popular and this year is no exception. There is a whole bunch of teams playing now and, of course, the big problem is the lack of courts. Because of this, the A grade games all have to be played on Saturdays. Saturday play goes against the grain with a lot of people, but the only alternative is to have shorter games during the week, or play until about midnight every night of the week. It's just not practicable.

ABOVE—Five players per team? The Rebels nurses should win by sheer numbers. RIGHT—Cathy Keenan, of the Burfrasco Bugaloos, and Judy Thompson leap for the ball. BELOW, LEFT TO RIGHT—Judy and Julie Petherbridge fight it out; Cathy just beats Maureen Rice to the ball; What's that funny monster with all those heads, legs and arms?

Left:
BRIDGER—WINSTANLEY.
At St Joseph's Catholic Church, New Plymouth, Kathryn Mary, second daughter of Mr and Mrs L. J. Winstanley, New Plymouth, to Michael William, elder son of Mr and Mrs E. Bridger, New Plymouth. The matron of honour was Margaret Fleming, Pungarehu, and the best man was Steve Jenkins, Rotorua. Future home, New Plymouth. (Vogue Studios).

Below:
BRETHERTON—DAWSON.
At St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, New Plymouth, Lesley Patricia, only daughter of Mr and Mrs J. V. Dawson, New Plymouth, to Philip, second son of Mr and Mrs Paul Bretherton, New Plymouth. The bridesmaids were Mande McConnell, Auckland, and Susan Atkinson, Oakura. The best man was John Agnew, Inglewood. Future home, New Plymouth. (Vogue Studios).

MARRIED

AND THE BEAT GOES ON

Since our last coverage of the power station site, quite a lot of progress has been made.

ABOVE—One of the partially completed revolving screens at the water intake. TOP RIGHT—The boilers on the left are really moving on. RIGHT—Inside the powerhouse. BELOW—Where the water goes back to the sea. Grown, hasn't it? BELOW RIGHT—The water intake is starting to look like something.

NEW SCHOOL OPENED

A crowd of over 500 attended the opening and dedication of the new $500,000 Sacred Heart Convent, at Fitzroy. The ceremony was performed by Peter, Cardinal McKeefry, Bishop of Wellington.

ABOVE—Here is a complete panoramic view of the new school and boarding establishment, showing its modern and clean lines — a building which will serve the Catholic community for many years. RIGHT—The plaque, just inside the main door, marking this milestone in the school's history. BELOW—Cardinal McKeefry emerges from the building to the open air ceremony. FAR RIGHT—The official party included Dr and Mrs E. P. Allen, Father J. F. O'Brien, Cardinal McKeefry, Father M. J. Carroll, Mr and Mrs R. Barclay and Mr and Mrs M. G. B. Harvey. BELOW RIGHT—The symbol of all Christians occupies an important space, just inside the main doors. BELOW, FAR RIGHT—Part of the gathering at the dedication ceremony.

