

Murray Kidd dots it down

TRIES—TRIES—TRIES

We don't know if the new scoring system has anything to do with it, but we certainly saw some great tries scored in the Clifton—Old Boys' game at the Park. ABOVE—Noel Henderson just beats Bill Currey. BELOW—Pinky Cameron played a fine game. BOTTOM—'Deejay' Pat Kershaw worked hard for that one.

Vern Mist gets his kick away

Terry Heppell goes in

JOINT CAR CLUBS' PICNIC

The Scenic City Rod and Custom Club, the New Plymouth Rodders, and the South Taranaki Rod and Custom Club held a joint picnic at Everett Park and, from what we saw, everybody enjoyed themselves immensely. None of these clubs have been in existence for more than a few years, but they enjoy a large membership of very keen car and bike enthusiasts.

ABOVE—Chris Solomons (backstop, and secretary, New Plymouth Rodders) looks to see where Ron Ward (pres., Scenic City Club) hit the ball. TOP RIGHT—Some of the 'gang.' RIGHT—Christine Slape prepares to serve, in an impromptu game of badminton. FAR RIGHT—Dianne Harvey returns with a smash. BELOW—The gals watch while the guys play softball.

SPOTSWOOD OLD BOYS CATCH 'EM WHILE THEY'RE YOUNG

'Catch 'em young and watch 'em grow,' is a phrase often used in reference to eligible females. This also applies in every sense to rugby players. This year, for the first time, Spotswood Old Boys have started up a regiment of young players, with an eye on the future . . . If the skills of the boys matched their desires to make good, then we are quite sure that they would be unbeatable. There is nothing like watching the boys playing and reminiscing over old times on a Saturday morning, and we can well imagine all the proud Dads on the side-line, throughout the winter. All of them telling the boys how to play and all of them bemoaning the referee if the boys lose, then marching junior home and hammering into him the basics of rugby, rugby, rugby.

ABOVE LEFT—Coach's helper Colin Kelly, sorting out who's going to go into the scrum. It's difficult to sort out the forwards and the backs with these kids because they are all the same size. ABOVE RIGHT—Coach Laurie Cottrell looks on as the boys leap for the lineout ball. BELOW LEFT—It's a try! Now you see it, now you don't. The ball is well hidden under this lad as he dives over the line. Line? BELOW RIGHT—There it goes, and the backline swings into action once again.

* Married

*
Left: COLE—WALKER. At the Hawera Methodist Church, Dawn Ellen, second daughter of Mr and Mrs Guy Walker, Hawera, to Donald James, second son of Mr and Mrs W. A. D. Cole, Glen Eden, Auckland. The bridesmaid was Cherol Oakes, Hawera, and the best man was Stuart Pullan, Wellington. Future home, Wellington.

*
Right: YOUNG—SMITH. At St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, New Plymouth, Sandra, only daughter of Mr and Mrs A. Smith, New Plymouth, to Norman, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J. O. Young, Pahia, Southland. The matron of honour was Jenny Watson, Stratford, and the bridesmaid was Elinor Letherbarrow, New Plymouth. The best man was Robert Young, brother of the groom, Southland, and the groomsman was Warren Baker, Stratford. Future home, Stratford.

*
Left: RIDDICK—WATERS. At the Knox Presbyterian Church, Fitzroy, Raewyn Judith, second daughter of Mr and Mrs J. R. Waters, New Plymouth, to Graeme Kevin, eldest son of Mr and Mrs S. E. Riddick, New Plymouth. The bridesmaids were Pamela and Linda Waters, sisters of the bride, New Plymouth. The best man was Craig Siddall, New Plymouth, and the groomsman was Peter Allen, New Plymouth. Future home, New Plymouth.

SCINTILLATING START TO NETBALL SEASON

It promises to be a great netball season, with 57 teams participating in the first day of grading games. Two weeks of grading games, and then it's on in earnest. We caught the Star vs Whites' game.

ABOVE, LEFT TO RIGHT—Shona Fleming just beats Paula Harding and Gay Pruden to the ball; Lorraine Gilbert about to pass over Christine Larkin's head; Figure that lot out, if you can. RIGHT—Sue Lawrence does a perfect arabesque, in defending.

Who said that there was no female talent in New Plymouth? At the netball we were literally surrounded by them. The new uniforms don't half make 'em attractive. So much nicer than grandma's gym slips.

Our photographer had a hard time doing his job, as most of the time, surrounded as he was by a bevy of young lovelies, he didn't know which way to look.

ABOVE—Paula Harding reaches the ball, just ahead of Shona Fleming. RIGHT—Sue Lawrence takes a high one. FAR RIGHT—Who's going to get it? BELOW—Gay Pruden takes the ball in the air as Karen Nielson and Lorraine Gilbert move into position. BELOW RIGHT—Lorraine Gilbert is on the deck, ball and all, with Christine Larkin and Wendy Corbett having a laugh.

*

*

PROGRESS AT BOYS' HIGH

It will only be a few months now, and the boys will be moving in to their new hall and technical block. Wish the schools were like that when we were there.

ABOVE—The steps leading to the gallery. TOP RIGHT—The foyer. RIGHT—This is no economy size hall. BELOW—Workmen on the roof of the stage. BELOW RIGHT—One of the modern laboratories.

FITZROY CRICKET CLUB WIND-UP AND PRESENTATION DINNER

Held this year at the Chalet coffee lounge, the annual dinner gives everyone a chance to relax in a convivial atmosphere with other members, girlfriends and wives (who seldom see their husbands during the season).

ABOVE—You wouldn't call them stalwarts — the members of the Fitzroy Cricket Club — just look at the youth they've got. This should auger well for the future, since they are a very enthusiastic bunch, and much praise must go to the officials of the club. BELOW, FROM LEFT—These were some of the trophy winners. Martin van Hattum; Malcolm Neale; Michael Brotherson; and Murch Skipper.

These two locomotives will probably be the last that anyone will see of steam engines on the rails of Taranaki. They recently came through to New Plymouth on a nostalgic journey from Wellington to Auckland and brought railway enthusiasts for that last memorable journey on the main line. Here, with steam up to boiling point, the front engine puffs its way out of Stratford Station, on the journey to Auckland.

NOSTALGIC JOURNEY

To us, there doesn't seem anything so beautifully powerful anywhere, and the sight of the two engines of the Railway Enthusiasts' Clubs, who rode them, gave us, and the hundreds who turned out to farewell these mighty horses, a real thrill. This was the scene at the Stratford Station as the train got ready to leave, with hundreds of people there to see them off.

20th Birthday

RIGHT—Bruce, son of Mr and Mrs A. G. Elstone, Otakeho, celebrated his 20th birthday with his family. From left, sister Deborah, Dad, Bruce, Mother and brother

CLEAN-UP DAY AT FITZROY SCOUT DEN

After a swarm of bees (working) descended on the Fitzroy Scout den, things started to buzz. The Mums and Dads went along to give the den and surrounds a much needed face lift.

ABOVE—After a slow start, work finally got under way. Barry Francis, Steve Bruce and Mr Smitt stack the stray wood. ABOVE RIGHT—With minds of experts, the wood is passed to the women to be stored. RIGHT—“Anyone for tea?” John Van Gent comes out of hiding just as Mrs McAsey pours tea. BELOW—“All hands back to work.” BELOW CENTRE—Watch those nails! Here Anne Francis helps store the wood. BELOW RIGHT—Val Smitt puts the finishing touches to the den clean-up.

Engaged

Above left: WOODS—CHISNALL. Frances Carol, second daughter of Mr and Mrs W. C. Chisnall, Waitara, to Eric Clive, younger son of Mr and Mrs C. J. Woods, Hawera. (Vogue Studios).

Above: BRISCO—ROWLAND. Kay, third daughter of Mr and Mrs C. G. Rowland, New Plymouth, to Peter, eldest son of Mr and Mrs G. Brisco, New Plymouth. (Vogue Studios).

Left: PICKETT—McALLUM. Diane Lynne, only daughter of Mr and Mrs O. McAllum, New Plymouth, to Leonard Charles, elder son of Mr and Mrs W. L. Pickett, New Plymouth. (Vogue Studios).

Below left: WATERS—WATERS. Margaret, only daughter of Mr and Mrs G. Waters, New Plymouth, to Brian William George, youngest son of Mr and Mrs D. G. Waters, Pungarehu. (Vogue Studios).

Below: MANUEL—TAINGAHUE. Joy, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs T. Taingahue, Okato, to William John, second son of Mr and Mrs S. Manuel, Waitara. (Vogue Studios).

HORRIFIC CRIMINALS AND TOUGH CRITICS

At the Spotswood College Inter-School drama contest we got a few shots of the more macabre scenes from 'Great Expectations.'

ABOVE—2nd convict Russell Mercer threatens Pip with foul deeds. RIGHT—1st convict Chris Brown doing his bit of threatening to poor old Pip (Klare Cousins). BELOW—After offering the cast some constructive criticism, adjudicator Mrs Dorne Arthur presented the Dr Andrews' prize to Frances Young and Graeme Heap, producers of "A Slice Of Life."

83rd BIRTHDAY

Mrs Olive Smith celebrated her 83rd birthday by having a quiet 'cuppa' with her oldest son Cecil, and his wife, at her Gilbert Street residence.

OUT & ABOUT

To everyone who says that there is very little to do in this town, we say BUNKUM! There is always plenty going on. On this page we show a few of the people and places you could have seen.

ABOVE RIGHT—Some of the members of the Taranaki branch of the N.Z. Founders Society were awarded with long service and merit badges at their annual luncheon, held recently in the Old Folk's Hall. From left, Mr V. C. Davies (badge receiver), Mr Lindsay Buick-Constable (N.Z. pres.), Mr R. G. Jamieson (Taranaki foundation president, and badge receiver), and Mr J. Nicholls (present New Plymouth pres.). CENTRE RIGHT—The King Singers, an English group, who performed superlatively here in Taranaki. BELOW RIGHT—20-year-old Keith Scott, who paddled 50 miles from Opunake to Ngamotu, to earn approximately $500 for the Opunake Surf Life-Saving Club. BELOW—Don Driver's sculpture, his latest addition to the Govett-Brewster Art Gallery Court.

ANZAC AT FITZROY SCHOOL

ANZAC Day was commemorated at the Fitzroy Primary School with a gathering of the pupils in the assembly hall, where they learned the meaning and significance of the day, followed by a wreath laying ceremony at the school gates.

ABOVE—Julie Read and Shaun Williamson hung a wreath. ABOVE RIGHT—Headmaster Mr V. A. Blance helps Julian Mitchell and Nyla Easthope. BELOW—The pupils troop past the wreaths. BELOW RIGHT—Brenda and Warren Taylor hang their wreath.

MARRIED

Left: WATSON—DAVISON. At St James's Presbyterian Church, New Plymouth, Betty, youngest daughter of Mr and Mrs S. L. Davison, New Plymouth, to Harold, only son of Mrs Watson, New Plymouth, and the late Mr E. J. Watson. The bridesmaid was Janet Davison, sister of the bride, Wellington, and the best man was Gary Goble, Stratford. Future home, Hamilton. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

Right: LOVEGROVE—DUGGAN. At the Holy Trinity Church, Fitzroy, Christeen Duggan, daughter of Mrs J. E. Pitcairn, Bell Block, to John, twin son of Mrs H. Lovegrove, New Plymouth. The matron of honour was Pam Wynd, sister of the bride, Auckland, and the bridesmaid was Carolyn Bishop, New Plymouth. The best man was Mark Lovegrove, brother of the groom, and the groomsman was Stan Lovegrove, twin brother of the groom, both New Plymouth. Future home, New Plymouth. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

Left: RUKUWAI—JONES. At the Fitzroy Catholic Church, Marjorie, third daughter of Mr and Mrs G. D. Jones, Fitzroy, to Robert, eldest son of Mr and Mrs B. Rukuwai, Stratford. The matron of honour was Valerie Taylor, sister of the bride, Auckland, and the bridesmaid was Lynne Gilbert, New Plymouth. The best man was Paul Julian, Okato, and the groomsman was Joe Pratt, New Plymouth. Future home, New Plymouth. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

WAIWAKA WOMEN'S BOWLING CLUB'S 21st ANNIVERSARY

ABOVE—These, the major prizewinners of the past season, pose for a shot outside the clubrooms. From left, they are Mattie Withers, Molly Taylor, Sheila Gibson, Mary Jackson, Betty Lovatt, Anne Walker, Win Ritchie, Elsie Kirk, Murial Laurence, Phil Engebretsen and Marion Smith.

ABOVE—In this picture there are 10 of the original 57 members of the club. (There were 11 present, but we missed Mrs Daisy Bishop). They are, from left, Vera Brown, Netty Roebuck, Beatrice Jagusch, May Smith, Muriel Quin (1st club president), Nan Mackay, Dorothy Falk, Doris Crapper, Vi St George and Anne Giddy. This function marked the end of the season.

OLD BOYS' JUNIOR PLAYERS SIGN ON

Who said that rugby was dying out? Judging by the enthusiasm of these boys, NPOBRFC is looking to a bright future.
 ABOVE—Righto gang, crowd round. BELOW—Bruce Buttimore pays his sub to Jill Williams, whilst the Williams girls look on. RIGHT—Derek Buttimore enrolls Ross Frechtling. BOTTOM—Organiser and coach, Leo Williams, checks on last year's players.

BELOW—There's Mary Gordon, again — twice even! We always like to see the average sort of player in these competitions — the people who never win, but are always in there trying. BOTTOM LEFT—Joan Collins hits out; and Molly Novak, after trying so hard to put it in the hole, takes it out again. BOTTOM RIGHT—"It's down there somewhere, mate — race you to it."

TARANAKI WOMEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Once again, all the aspiring champs did battle for the honours. The weather was great and the ladies were right on form. TOP, FROM LEFT—Loy Jones; Mary Gordon; and Nancy Rich, all from New Plymouth; Diana Evans from Hamilton. ABOVE—"Which way did it go?" "This way, I think."

Not only were the women having a great time, but the swans were as well. They took a box seat and watched all the antics with much glee and hearty cheers for the fine shots played.

TOP, FROM LEFT—Norma Craig; We've forgotten your name, Mum, but it was a lovely shot; Loy Jones, again; and Molly Novak. ABOVE—"Man, look at that little white thing go!" LEFT—We won't say who that was who took two shots to get out of the bunker. RIGHT, AND FAR RIGHT—Evie White, caught showing fine application. BELOW—Pity the poor caddies carting that lot around the Ngamotu golf links.

DARTS CLUB SUCCESS MERITS A FINE CABARET

The McKechnies' Dart Club had a meritorious win over Fashions' Dart Club, so they decided to hold a cabaret to toast their success. They acquitted themselves well, and it was a cabaret to remember, for the good time that everybody present enjoyed. The highlight of the evening, to the club executive, was the presentation of a bouquet of lovely flowers to Miss Brooklands 1972, Suzanne Chard, and her charming maids, Denise Quin and Jill Craig.

TOP LEFT—Trevor Scott and Denise Charteris. TOP RIGHT—Don and Lorraine Crossan obviously use Colgate. RIGHT—Denise Quin, Suzanne Chard and Jill Craig pose with their bouquets. BOTTOM, FROM LEFT—Alan and Jan Henderson; Chris Wright and Anthea Douglas; Ray Rogers and wife.

56

Taranaki archives @ www.new-plymouth.com

Above: CLARK—TAYLOR. At the United Church, Inglewood, Zena, second daughter of Mr and Mrs R. E. Taylor, Inglewood, to William (Joe), eldest son of Mr and Mrs L. A. R. Clark, Inglewood. The bridesmaids were Noelene Taylor, sister of the bride, Inglewood, and Verna Emery, Auckland. The best man was Jock Johnstone, Inglewood, and the groomsman was Les Laurence, Inglewood. The flower-girl was Heather Taylor, sister of the bride, Inglewood. Future home, Waitara. (Vogue Studios).

Married

Below: BURROWS—HALFORD. At St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, New Plymouth, Gweneth Raewyn, fourth daughter of Mr G. H. Halford, New Plymouth, and the late Mrs S. Halford, to William Stephen, third son of Mr and Mrs F. Burrows, Auckland. The bridesmaids were Christine Halford, sister of the bride, New Plymouth, and Jennifer Clark, New Plymouth. The best man was Arthur Burrows, brother of the groom, Whangarei, and the groomsman was Ian Read, Auckland. Future home, Auckland. (Vogue Studios).

57

PARAPLEGIC SPORTS SHOW GREAT SPIRIT

Paraplegics from as far as Wellington and Palmerston North recently assembled in Hawera for a sports session. The morning consisted of field sports, like the discus, putt and javelin, in which these unfortunate people did extremely well. The object of the meeting was to try and influence this type of person who is living in or near to Hawera, and also, no doubt, to give the visitors a day out. Needless to say, it was a very successful occasion, and one we hope can be repeated, with perhaps a visit to New Plymouth, too.

ABOVE—Some of the contestants line up for their various events. LEFT—Kaylene Dobson, Hawera, is shown how to throw the shot by Elizabeth Toye (Palmerston North). BELOW LEFT—Gabrielle Kissick (Hawera) tries her hand at the javelin. BELOW—Linda Allomes, all the way from Palmerston North, was another javelin expert.

ABOVE—With these paraplegics, who can do and have learned to do, much for themselves, there are always A1 humans on hand to help in any way possible. Mainly, in the sports field, it is teaching the art of throwing the javelin, or putting the shot, or the discus. We watched these people, who call themselves escorts, and can only say that they had more understanding and patience than anyone we have ever seen.

ABOVE LEFT—Here Elizabeth Toye (Palmerston North) helps Marjorie Hellaby with the discus, and is showing her how to grip the thing. BELOW LEFT—Trevor McEwan-Campbell is himself a great sport, and can surely throw the javelin. ABOVE RIGHT—A tremendous amount of physical effort is needed to throw things like the javelin from a wheel-chair. Here, Shirley Noble tries to out-throw her companion. BELOW RIGHT—Eric Toye was a discus expert.

Queen's Badge Winners

LEFT—Four New Plymouth members of the Girls' Brigade have won the coveted Queen's Badge, the first to be presented in Taranaki. Their's was a tough test to win this award, which included giving six month's social service, a 40-page project on a particular interest and a 2-hour paper on national and local body government. All this before appearing before a national council at headquarters. The Mayor of New Plymouth, Mr D. V. Sutherland, presented the girls with their badges. They are, from left, Meryl Ashworth, Judy Innes, Lynne Collins and Lyndsay Sutherland.

CHANGING FACE

BELOW LEFT—The new intersection at Kaitere Road and Devon Road is fast becoming a major turnoff, with all the industry in the Kaitere block. BELOW—Another shop in the main street has been demolished. It is next to Phillips Motors.

CYCLING SEASON BEGINS

Once again, the road racing season is under way and, all over Taranaki, bikes are being pulled out of sheds and being made ready to do battle on the highways and byways.

ABOVE—G. Crossman and K. Malcolm get away in the B grade boys' 3-miler. ABOVE RIGHT—The second bunch starts in the men's 15-miler. RIGHT—First boy home, D. Knight. FAR RIGHT—D. Knight starting out. BELOW—Second boy home, K. Batten. BOTTOM LEFT—First bunch in the Senior race. BOTTOM RIGHT—Scratch bunch in the Senior race.

STRATFORD FOR ACTION

What started out as a beautiful day finished up a real stinker. We can name one photographer who got very wet trying to do his job.

ABOVE—At least the blanket helps. ABOVE RIGHT—They're off! BELOW—Hell of a place to park, you guys. BELOW RIGHT—88 giving it a go, sideways. BOTTOM LEFT AND RIGHT—No's 47 and 32. These saloon cars are really moving it these days.

KIDS HAVE A BALL

It was Open Day at playcentres throughout New Zealand and in all of them, no doubt, there was chaos. Many, many tiny feet and hands all doing their own thing. Nevertheless, with all the trained staff that playcentres have, we're quite sure that it was organised chaos. We took a trip to the Rahoitu Playcentre for the morning, to see for ourselves what they do with the kids.

TOP LEFT—Cooking? TOP RIGHT—Kim Phillips and her cakes. FAR LEFT—Anthony Adanski trains to be an artist. LEFT—Wayne Pomare putting it all together. BELOW LEFT—Many cooks make great cakes. BELOW—Andrew McNeil knocks it down again.

LADIES—YOU DESERVED ALL THIS FUSS

We met one of the top brass of the Waitara Bowling Club at the New Plymouth Trots and he told us that the men would show their appreciation to their lady helpers, the following day, by entertaining them to a game of bowls and a meal. He said the men were going to cook the meal, serve it and even wash the dishes. This sounded too good to be true, so off we went, the next day, with the camera.

They certainly entertained the ladies, but we got a surprise to find the meal was a COLD one — the only things cooked were the spuds and peas (even they were under-done). We had it on good authority that the cold meat was pre-cooked for them, and the sweets were the tinned variety. To us it seemed that our informant was a prevaricator of the truth (you won't understand that, Ted)! Mind you, the men worked hard enough, giving orders to all and sundry, and they even sent Alfie home three times, to dig more spuds — so poor was their budgetting. In fact, the only bloke to do his job properly was the man who said grace, prior to the meal!

But seriously, this was a wonderful gesture — one that could be followed by other clubs. Such is the atmosphere at Waitara, where sociability and friendliness is of paramount importance, and having plenty of good players and pothunters, alike, comes well down on their list of priorities.

BELOW—Bill Strong and Pat Donovan strain their greens! ABOVE RIGHT—President Ted Maha — a ladies' man if ever we saw one — pours the liquid refreshment for the guests. RIGHT—And then he proceeded to show them how to quaff their ale. BELOW RIGHT—Clive Fawcett was the chief server-outer.

ABOVE LEFT—Centre secretary Ted Power had nothing to do, so the workers dressed him in a pinny and put him to work as a waitress. ABOVE—Ray Bullock (with a circumflex over the 'o') and Maurice Erb were in charge of the spud mashing . . . what a couple of mashers! LEFT—Panic stations for Ted when they discovered they were three plates short. BELOW—The gang . . . every one an overseer. From left, Pat Donovan, Maurie Erb, Clive Fawcett, Bruce Paltridge, Bill Strong and Ray Bullock.

LACHLAN IN PORT

HMNZS Lachlan once again was a visitor to our port recently, and each time we see her, her plates are dented a little more.

Married

Left: HODGE—MERRIMAN. At the Salvation Army Citadel, New Plymouth, Janice, eldest daughter of Mr and Mrs T. W. Merriman, Bell Block, to Noel, youngest son of Mr and Mrs C. Hodge, Waitara. The bridesmaids were Colleen and Vickie Merriman, sisters of the bride, Bell Block. The best man was Gavin Brough, Waitara, and the flower-girl was Michelle Hodge, Waitara. Future home, Fitzroy. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

Right: HINE—BOSWELL. At St Mary's Anglican Church, New Plymouth, Alison, only daughter of Mr and Mrs C. N. Boswell, New Plymouth, to John, only son of Mr and Mrs Hine, Toko. The bridesmaids were Jillian Pillette, New Plymouth, and Helen Hine, sister of the groom, New Plymouth. The best man was Vaughan Hughes, New Plymouth, and the groomsman was Ian Boswell, brother of the bride, Auckland. Future home, Toko. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

Left: MAWSON—MORRIS. At the Whiteley Methodist Church, New Plymouth, Pauline Ann, second daughter of Mr and Mrs R. S. Morris, New Plymouth, to Gary Eric, second son of Mr and Mrs R. W. Mawson, New Plymouth. The bridesmaids were Mary Melville and Mary Anne Robins, both of New Plymouth. The best man was Michael Wood, New Plymouth, and the groomsman was Philip Mawson, brother of the groom, New Plymouth. The flower-girl was Tania Sulzberger, Urenui. Future home, New Plymouth. (Terry Finnerty-Squire Photography).

Picture From The Past

Taranaki Representatives 1890

A. COOD, three-quarter; J. PEARSON, forward; H. COOD, forward; T. HEMPTON, three-quarter; C. BAILEY, half back; G. E. MAKARA, three-quarter; J. LAMBIE, forward; E. OLD, forward; W. SANGSTER, forward; J. LYE, forward; A. BAILEY, CAP, three-quarter; W. COOD, forward; J. BARFORD, forward; R. TATE, half back; C. OLIVER, full back; J. LIVINGSTONE, forward; W. BAILEY, half back.

Back Middle Front