VOLUME 19 NUMBER 10

OCTOBER

We have just released two new products onto the market this month, each aimed at different age groups.

You will have seen the advance advertising for our first paperback book, which is called BUY ME A BEER. This is now available and only $1.00. It makes for excellent Christmas gift buying.

The book deals with country life, hunting, fishing and shooting. In short it is "A book for those who travel the outback, and also for those who wish they could."

The book is written by Trevor Crabtree and while it is full of humour, it also reflects a rare sensitivity for our natural heritage, the bush, the land and everything that roams this earth.

The second product to have been released this month is a new magazine aimed at the teenage market. Called NOW, the magazine deals with a great variety of subjects of interest to those in their teen years. Subjects range from Music, sport, reviews of motorbikes and cars, to film news, television news and previews, and a background to the news.

Specialist writers have been employed to cover this wide range of subjects and all write especially for this age group and especially for NOW.

The magazine is what teenagers have been asking for, for a long time for while it is designed especially for this group, the material covered within its pages is very varied and quite topical.

PARADE

A fashion parade was held a few weeks ago in the Bell Block Hotel. The event was promoted by the City Band and drew a reasonable crowd to a preview of new seasons fashions.

Barbara Bird wears a knee length sunfrock.

Joseph models surfing shorts & tee sbirt.

Rita models new casual wear.

These two younsters really stole the show.

Davina in denim sborts and a midriff top.

Naomi George notes the impending arrival of summer with this cool sunfrock.

Adele and Joseph model 'Unisex' clothing. This type of gear has been very popular overseas for quite some time.

1975 Photo News AWARDS BALL

Gabrielle Kissick of Hawera received the Gold Star award for achievement of International standing. Gabrielle won four Gold and one Silver Medal at the recent South Pacific Games.

The Hawera Municipal Band won an Arts & Sciences Medal for their success at the National Band Champs. They won the B grade section. The award also recognises their contribution as a band to their community.

The New Plymouth City Band also received an Arts & Sciences Medal. They won the A Grade section at the National Championships.

The Ambulance section of the Opunake St John received a Citation Award. The award recognises their operation of a vital service to their community over a period of nearly 23 years. It also notes the contribution made by a large number of individuals, without thought of reward.

The 1975 Photo News Awards Ball was held at the end of last month at the War Memorial Hall in Waitara. A total of eight awards were presented this year and the presentation was made by the Mayor of Waitara, Mr Dick Wilson. The night before the Ball, the advertised guest artist, Lou Clauson was taken to Auckland Hospital and accordingly was unable to be present. However the crowd of nearly 200 enjoyed the evening and a great reception was accorded to both Trevor Crabtree (who related a yarn from his book 'Buy Me a Beer' and also sang a few numbers) and 'Trev' Dagg. While we are still not entirely sure who 'Trev' was, his quick quips and his attire (gumboots with frayed shorts a lace shirt and bow tie capped with army style hat) a big hit and helped to keep the evening going at a happy and high spirited pace all night, from start to finish.

Sgt Vic. Story of the New Plymouth Police received a Citizenship Award for his work with Search and Rescue over many years. Also for his work with Civil Defence.

Mrs Eileen Crosby of Hawera received her Citizenship Medal for 15 years service to her community in areas ranging from Borough Council to the Maori Womens Welfare League.

A Valour Award was given to Steve Abraham of Waitara. Steve effected a successful rescue earlier this year from a flooded culvert in Waitara which was undoubtedly responsible for saving life.

Allan Ellis of Waitara received a Citizenship Award for his service to a great number of organisation in the Waitara area. It was noted that people such as Allan make their respective communities a better place in which to live.

FACES at the Ball

Happy faces...Carol Rogers & brother-in-law
Brian Deardon.

Mr and Mrs Maurice Sattler of New Plymouth

Naomi and Larry George of New Plymouth.

Mr and Mrs Hans & June Van Stigt.

Who's getting blackmailed? Well, it wasn't blackmail, just a little persuasion applied to Laurie Annabell of Hastings, by sister-in-law Lyn. At Left is Josie Crabtree and the couple on right are Trevor Crabtree & Mrs Colleen Annabell of Hastings.

Mr and Mrs Peter Marshall and Janet Ellis, all of Waitara.

Mr and Mrs Jim and Iris Hayman of Inglewood.

FROM THE PAST.....A view of Port Taranaki around the early part of this century. Note that there are no buildings on the Port Hills and also the lighthouse, immediately behind the ship. It will also be noted that the breakwater has changed very little since the time this picture was taken.

Letter of Complaint

Dear Sirs,

In view of the extensive advertising in respect of the Photo News Awards Ball held on Saturday, 27 September at the Memorial Hall, Waitara, I obtained tickets on behalf of a group of friends and myself.

I am writing to express my dissatisfaction at the way in which this Ball -so-called- was held.

1...Are you aware that no time of commencement was given in your advertisements or even on the tickets themselves? This meant our party arrived at the hall at 7-30 finding the place in darkness and had to wait in the freezing cold to be told by one of your members that the evening was expected to begin 'round about 8-0 o'clock'.

2....Returning to the hall at 8-0 o'clock, it was announced that the heating was not working and in a place the size of Memorial hall, it is not surprising that I sat shivering the whole evening with my coat on - even during a spot of dancing.

3...Count Five, the band, was minus two of its lead singers thus distracting from its usual performance.

4....The supper was in my opinion, a disgrace to the catering profession, Having attended a number of smaller cabarets at half, or even less, the price of your tickets, I was extremely disappointed at the lack of choice: cold chicken and sandwiches with a little curry is hardly in keeping with tickets costing $15 a double.

I feel the above points should be brought to the notice of your Committee and in the event of no adequate explanation being received, I intend writing to the Editor of the 'Daily News' so as to bring this matter to the public's attention.

Mrs J.M. Bayes, 85 Eliot St, New Plymouth.

We are sorry you did not enjoy the ball. No, starting time was not advertised at length, though it was mentioned in several adverts in Photo News as 8-opm. I will also agree that it was not a warm night. I personally was however not cold in the hall, nor was anyone else I spoke to so perhaps it was a personal matter. Yes, Kount Five male lead singer did have an infected throat. However Terry Hignett's vocals left nothing to be desired nor did those of the girl singer. I am surprised that you are not also complaining about Lou Clauson being taken to Hospital!!!!!! The supper was excellent. Did you not see the large amounts of oysters, ham on the bone, loads of savouries (there were three dozen left over) curried eggs and pavlova to name just a few dishes???

Perhaps people do "only see what they want to see, and hear what they want to hear" ????

Anyway, dear reader, you need have no fears in future, Photo News will certainly not bother to proceed with community work, for complaints like yours are, it seems the normal reward. You may also like to note that while a profit was not anticipated, the actual loss for the night was to the order of $245-00.

In conclusion, you are welcome to proceed with your threatened letter to the Daily News, however I have already answered the points you have raised and the matter has been aired in the pages of Photo News (where, after all it should be raised) and all readers are welcome to add their comments if they so desire.

A Preview of the SUMMER FASHIONS

It's going to be hot this summer with lots of sun and that means every girl will need a wardrobe to suit the weather. On these two pages we give you a look at some of the more casual gear being stocked in local stores. Our two models, Arlene and Carolyn (both students at New Plymouth Girl's High School) picked their choice in swim wear, jeans and casual skirts and model them for readers.

Left... Arlene models a pale blue Satin look bikini. There are a lot of satin type bikinis on sale this year along with floral pattern styles too.

Right....For 'knocking around wear' Arlene chose a pair of pre-frayed jean shorts and matched them with a San Michelle Jersey Tank Top with short sleeves and a featured print on the bodice.

Above....Arlene looks great in a 'just-above the knee' length skirt. She chose a multi striped skirt which is contrasted by the use of denim pockets, front and rear, and a denim bib front.

Above...Carolyn feels "Free and Easy" in a pair of flared denim blue jeans, matched with a knitted flared top with lace trimming.

Top Left....For a summer frock Carolyn chose a Jantzen polyester and cotton striped sunfrock, with halter neck, elasticised under the bodice to keep a good fit. Looks good too.

PRObe with Bryce McPherson

"Bring him back when he can play in tune".

There was no PRObe column last month because of the Taranaki Promotion Association's participation in the New Zealand Industries Fair in Christchurch. I travelled to the Garden City to set up the display, and five selected people staffed the exhibit during the two week exposition.

Over 130,000 people visited the Fair and many of them showed more than passing interest in the push button consoles, slide show and photographic coverage that made up Taranaki's display. And because of our participation we can be sure of more visitors from that part of the country.

NAC and TASMAN Rent-A-Car, who pledged wonderful support to our first ever South Island exposure — there were others too — played along with Mr Chris Carter of 'Wonderland', full role in the effort. And NAC uplifted our push button consoles at the conclusion of the Fair for use in Dunedin, Invercargill, Blenheim and Nelson.

A new with-it, swinging hotel, aiming to catch the younger set has a bar called 'Hitching Post', which generates a distinct 'Wild West' atmosphere with swinging doors and a noose above the bar. But at the entrance is a notice — "NO DENIMS OR JEANS ALLOWED".

Taranaki gained coverage in NZ News, published in London, following a visit to the Kiwi Co-operative Dairies Ltd factory at Whareroa by the Governor General and Lady Blundell. Lady Blundell slipped on some loose shingle outside the works and sprained an ankle. At a meeting of the Hawera Women's Club kater in the day, Lady Blundell said "At least I did it coming out of a dairy factory and not a brewery".

ISLAND VISITORS

During the August School Holidays, a team of Judo Juniors from New Caledonia, spent just over a week in New Plymouth. The team were hosted by members of the New Plymouth Judo Academy and while friendly matches were staged in the evenings, during the day the kids were given a tour of the province by their hosts. Many had never seen a cow before.

RUGBY

TARANAKI v. WAIKATO

While we wouldn't call this the Rugby match of the year, for Taranaki, it was an interesting game and the fans turned out in their hundreds to enjoy it.

The conditions on the field were appallingly wet and as can be seen in these photos from the game, mud flew everywhere.

Another attacking motion.

Kicking forward to clear a few more feet.

Splat - a kick, and mud flies.

Wringing wet the lot of them, and it makes the game difficult to play.

The ball is kicked forward and this ends mens scurring after it.

A driving attack ends up with a kick for touch.

On the attack, but well blocked.

SOCCER

A Taranaki side played Waikato at Soccer last month in New Plymouth. Recorded here is some of the action (and there was plenty) on the part of both sides. It was a well fought match with no quarter given by either side.

Goalie is down and the ball goes in.

The ball seems to have a will of its own.

"That's no dance I'm doing man, this is serious play".

Holiday Fun

The school holidays usually see many activities arranged for children. Laurie Petty and his team of valiant 'magical toys' are always a big attraction with the kids and of course he was much in demand during the holidays. We picture Laurie and some of his toys during a performance at holiday time.

"And here's one for the girls".

There are no "woof woofs" here but the magic comes in animated movements.

Children's faces mirror their feelings.

"Hey big brother look at that dooby doll?"

"Now what do you think of this bloke?"

"Gee, Mr Petty, I wish he were mine".

Every kid was totally enchanted with the antics of those 'magical toys'.

Graduates

Two classes, (the Charm and the Model, or Advanced Class) from the Le Fillettes Model and Charm School, graduated at the end of their respective courses, recently.

The girls graduated at a ceremony held at the Braemar in New Plymouth. The actual ceremony was preceded by a parade, in which the girls modelled a range of new season fashion wear.

HOCKEY

TARANAKI v. CANADA

Hockey in Taranaki has certainly received a boost this season with many representative games having been played and with tours by both Fiji and Canada. The Canadian match, pictured here saw Taranaki put up a reasonable performance. The locals were able to hold the Canadians to a 2 to 1 win.

While both sides had their share of the ball, it was the Canadian team who made better capital out of their opportunities and hence, won the game.

HOCKEY

TARANAKI v. FIJI

Two hockey teams, a male and a female team, from Fiji, recently paid a visit to Taranaki and played representative matches while they were here.

Pictured on this page are the two teams and a couple of shots from both the guys and the girls matches.
