SEE VAL DOONICAN FREE!

"Photo News" has four double passes to the Val Doonican Show, at New Plymouths' Opera House on October 27th.

Elsewhere in this issue you will find details on how you can win a double pass to see this world acclaimed singer and host of a very popular TV show. The contest will run over the next two issues of "Photo News," with a closing date of October 24th.

CHILD STUDY OF THE MONTH

The pretty little girl who wins our 'Child Study of the Month' award, this month, is Sandra Antill, of Inglewood. Sandra is 2½ years old and is just as cute as she looks. The photo was taken by Murray Blackwell, of New Plymouth. This photo has won the album "Little Wheel, Spin & Spin" by Buffy St Marie. The prize offered for the next issue, for the best Child Study, is an album by Jerry Reed.

EDITORIAL

Firstly, I must say thank you, people of Taranaki, for your reaction to the last issue of "Photo News." The edition completely sold out and this was very encouraging, especially as it was my first issue since taking over the Editor's chair.

I feel that the time has come to explain to readers the direction I would like the publication to take, under my Editorship. "Photo News" is very obviously a social-type pictorial publication. It is my intention to broaden its appeal so that it will hold something for everyone, regardless of their age or interests. You may find a little more accent on youth activities, but this does not mean that those who are more mature will get less coverage of their activities. The intention is to broaden the appeal of the magazine.

"Photo News" is pleased to announce that, commencing next issue, New Plymouth's Public Relations Officer, Bryce McPherson, will contribute a monthly column. Bryce is a very capable P.R. man, who is very keen to promote Taranaki, its people and its attractions. He has had 18 years of journalistic experience, including both newspaper and radio work, and has many varied interests. His column will discuss the promotion of Taranaki, his work, the Bowl of Brooklands, and Taranaki people and their interests.

Elsewhere in this month's magazine, you will read how you may meet either the New Seekers or Val Doonican. Promotions of this nature will continue from time to time in "Photo News". We, as a publication, are deeply involved with the community, and will always be happy to promote any worthwhile organisation, club or movement.

Bryce McPherson

OUR COVER

Judy Robinson, of New Plymouth, is our delightful Cover girl this month. Judy, who is one of Joan Mulliner's top students, is a ledger machinist and lists her interests as horse riding, skiing, and yachting. We borrowed the colourful smock top from Accessory House, to contrast against the chestnut colouring of "Sake," the prize-winning gelding.

BACK COVER. It is seldom that a fully traditional Maori wedding is held in Taranaki. The Urwin-Clark wedding took place a few weeks ago, on the Manukorihi Marae, at Waitara. This photo shows the full bridal party, immediately after the service.

NEXT ISSUE — 20 OCTOBER 1972.

MRS TARANAKI FINAL

Stratford was the venue for this year's Mrs Taranaki final.

RADIO'S SWINGING D.J.

NEW LOUNGE

The Hotel Tasman has gone out of its way to update the Marine Lounge and give it an atmosphere in keeping with the type of entertainment it plans to offer. A resident band will perform each Thursday, Friday and Saturday night, and guest artist Frankie Rowles will appear on October 5th, along with a fashion show from the House of Ram. Future guest artists will include Suzanne and Bunny Walters.

(Charters & Guthrie).

TROLLEY DERBY

New Plymouth's Devon Street was closed, one recent Saturday morning, for the first annual Trolley Derby. As the photos show, the heavy rain marred the day, but it didn't mar the spirits of either the competitors or the spectators. With the wet and slippery conditions it was almost miraculous that there was only one very minor mishap.

HIPPIE PARTY ☆

JUDO REPS

The New Plymouth Judo Club has just returned from a two-week trip to Fiji and Noumea. This trip was arranged in association with clubs in those islands, as teams from both countries have already visited here, and the New Plymouth team competed in friendly bouts during their trip. Our roving camera visited the team just prior to their departure and here are the styles that our boys show.

The C.W.I. held an Arts and Crafts exhibition at Frankleigh Park Hall, at the end of last month. The exhibition was well attended and many fine examples of work were on display. The crafts included in the display were cane and basket work, crochet, needlework and knitting.

Married

Left: RICHARDS—WAGSTAFF. Barbara, twin daughter of Mr and Mrs P. L. Wagstaff, of New Plymouth, to Bruce, eldest son of Mr and Mrs J. Richards, of Remuera, Auckland. The bridesmaid was Margaret Wagstaff, twin sister of the bride, and the best man was John Richards, of Auckland, brother of the groom. The couple, who will live in New Plymouth, were married at the Holy Trinity Church, in Fitzroy. (Finnerty of Fitzroy).

Right: COLLINS—DOMBROSKI. Patricia Anne, only daughter of Mr and Mrs R. U. Dombroski, of Inglewood, to Robert John, son of Mr and Mrs R. L. Collins, of Palmerston North. The marriage ceremony took place at Sacred Heart, Inglewood. The chief bridesmaid was Dot Griffiths, of Marton, and the bridesmaid was Wendy Collins, sister of the groom. Kevin Thomas was the best man. The couple will live in Wellington. (Finnerty of Fitzroy).

BATTLE OF THE BANDS

The P. & O. Battle of the Bands contest came to Taranaki this month, and local bands competed to show us how good they are. The winning band was Copperstone (ABOVE LEFT), who had only been together for three days, prior to the contest. Second was Shaft (LEFT), third was Renascence Fair, from Opunake, and fourth was Warbeck (TOP, NEXT PAGE). BELOW LEFT—Copperstone receives their trophy from P. & O.'s New Plymouth representative. BOTTOM RIGHT—The man who made it all happen — Benny Levin.

BATTLE MANIA

The photos on this page show members of Shaft and Copperstone (BOTTOM RIGHT) during the evening. Tensions mounted as the battle raged, as expressed by these pix. BELOW CENTRE—One of the audience, who was happy to keep dancing, oblivious to all.

The chief bridesmaid was Heather Petrie, of Ashburton, and the best man was Bruce Budge, of Pukekohe. The couple will live in Hawera. (David Paul Studio).

Below: GEORGE—FITZGERALD. At St Joseph's, New Plymouth, Colleen Margaret, only daughter of Mr and Mrs K. J. G. Fitzgerald, of New Plymouth, to Graeme Ernest, only son of Mr and Mrs J. E. George, of New Plymouth. The chief bridesmaid was Barbara Campbell, of Papatoetoe, and the best man was Ian Goodwin, of Auckland. The couple will make their home in Henderson, Auckland. (Vogue Studios).

HAIL IN THE CITY

One moment it was fine, the next it was hailing. Parts of New Plymouth were covered up to a foot deep in hail, yet other parts escaped the deluge altogether. As the hailstones melted, city guttering became full or overflowing, and many culverts were unable to cope with the rush of water.

CHARM COURSE

"Photo News" has noticed that many girls of all age groups have been attending various charm and poise courses, and also modelling courses. We wanted to know what it was all about, so we sent our camera-girl along. Joan Mulliner conducted the course and explained to the girls how best to show themselves off, through the use of make-up; how to put yourself at ease; what subjects were best not to discuss, and what type of clothes to wear, depending on the individual's figure. All of the girls claim that they benefited from the course and found themselves much more confident in facing everyday situations. The girls pictured are: Tutor Joan Mulliner, with Maxine; Alana Larsen; and Sandra McArthur.

SOLO PARENTS' BIRTHDAY

The New Plymouth Solo Parents celebrated its fifth birthday, at the New Plymouth Senior Citizens' Hall, with a dance.

BELOW CENTRE—The man who organised the celebration, Earl Mason. BOTTOM RIGHT—The crowd of dancers. BELOW—We wondered why the pianist posted weekly to Australia??

TRADITIONAL MAORI WEDDING

For the first time in many years, Taranaki was witness to a full traditional Maori wedding. The whole service was spoken in the Maori tongue and over 450 guests attended. The bridegroom was Michael Stanley, youngest son of Mrs M. A. Urwin, of Waitara, and the bride was Ngaronga Zillah, only daughter of Mr and Mrs R. Clark, of Turangawaewae, Ngaruawahia. The bridesmaids were Vinny Ngataki, Blossom Poutapu, Anna Thocolich and Rangi Atkinson, all of Ngaruawahia. The best man was Arthur Sadler, of Papakura, and the groomsmen were Reginald Urwin, Steven Maxwell and Piri Kahu, all of Waitara. The Rev. Dave Tu Teao Manihera performed the ceremony on the Manukorihi Marae.

Our photos on these two pages show the arrival of the bridal party, the wedding ceremony proper, the two new 'mothers-in-law,' all on the opposite page, and, on this page, the bride and groom, with attendants and parents, the four-tiered cake, the cake cutting ceremony, and some of the guests from Waikato district, who arrived in six chartered buses.

ROTARACT CABARET

Rotaract held another very successful cabaret last month, this time at the Omata Road Hall. The "Photo News" camera caught a few of the many happy faces who attended.

APOLOGY

On page 61 of the last issue of "Photo News," we made a mistake. We said that 'Just Looking Fashions' staged a preview of spring fashions. This should have read "Rotaract staged a preview of spring fashions, with garments provided by 'Just Looking,' and other items provided by Barry Carnachan, Marjory Ladner, Deares and Margaret Whitehead. We apologise for our mistake and trust it did not cause too much inconvenience to those concerned.

“For He So Loved His Barrow that He Chained it to a Tree

WIN A DOUBLE PASS TO THE DOONICAN SHOW

"Photo News" has four double passes to The Val Doonican Show to give to readers.

Val Doonican will perform in two concerts at the Opera House, New Plymouth, on October 27th. He will be supported by Suzanne.

The New Plymouth concerts are part of a 12-city New Zealand tour which commences on October 16th and concludes on October 29th.

Doonican has been a performer for 23 years. He started out as a drummer for the Boy Scouts, progressed to Talent Quests, and then started work as a member of a vocal group called 'The Four Ramblers.' In 1964, Doonican first got into the big time when he hit the top of the English charts with "Walk Tall." Soon afterwards, he gained his own T.V. series, which has continued to this day.

An accomplished song-writer and a polished performer, Val Doonican is in big demand throughout the world. We, in Taranaki, are lucky that he is to perform concerts locally. It is a once in a lifetime opportunity to see this internationally acclaimed artist.

"Photo News" readers will no doubt be familiar with the Val Doonican T.V. series. What we want you to do is fill in the coupon below and answer the questions fully, then mail this to the Val Doonican Competition, Photo News, P.O. Box 427, New Plymouth. The grand prizewinner will receive a double pass to the Val Doonican Show, a copy of his new album, which is called "Just a Sittin' and a-Rockin'," plus a voucher for $20 worth of Mill Valley facial products of your choice. A Mill Valley representative will call on the winner personally, and help you choose the products.

There will be three consolation prizes of double passes to the show. After you have filled in the entry coupon, attach a sheet of paper telling why you like the Val Doonican T.V. Show. This should not be more than 100 words in length. Winners will be notified by telegram.

Record Competition Results

Last month's competition, where we gave away 80 records, was a smash success. Three days after "Photo News" was published, all the records were gone, including those from the country section. We had entries from as far away as Christchurch, Hamilton and Gisborne. To those who missed out, all we can say is "better luck next time." However, I would like to point out that quite a few country entries had to be disqualified because they did not comply with one of the conditions, which was to enclose return postage. The name of the singer pictured was, of course, Neil Diamond.

WIN A POSTER

This month we have 12 posters of Leon Russell to give our younger readers.

The first seven to be won are 23 inches by 30, and the other five are 22 inches by 16.

Unfortunately, these posters cannot be posted, so readers will have to call in to collect their prize. All you have to do is tell us the name of the recording label that Leon Russell (pictured ABOVE) owns, in partnership with Denny Cordell.

If you're into rock music don't forget to read the 'Now Sound' column each Saturday, in the Taranaki Sports. The latest rock news from N.Z. and around the world, and in-depth Album reviews.

NEW DAM

ABOVE—The New Plymouth City Engineers' Department has been busy building a new dam at Lake Mangamahoe. The reason for the dam is that the northern end of the lake, from which the city water has been taken, has become stagnant and this had resulted in the water acquiring a bad taste. The dam cuts off the northern end of the lake from the southern, which consists of water fresh from the river.

CARVINGS FOR ST MARY'S

LEFT—John Ford has been commissioned to do a series of carvings for St Mary's Church, in New Plymouth. Our photo depicts John discussing the work with Archdeacon Butt. The carvings will tell the story of how, in 1740, the Ngati-awa Tribe sieged the Wahakarewa Pa, cutting off all supplies. The chief of the Wahakarewa Pa, Rangi-Raungi, grew thirsty and was given water by Takarangi, son of Te Rangi-Apiti-Rua, chief of the warring tribe. This of course defeated the object of the siege. Young Takarangi fell in love with Raumahora, daughter of chief Rangi-Raungi, and the romance ended the war.

BIRTHDAYS

BELOW—Philip Old, son of Mr and Mrs A. J. Old, celebrated his 21st with a party at his parents' residence, in McLean Street, New Plymouth.
